ISSUE 15 KINGDOM HERALD SEPTEMBER 2010

After being late last month I was determined to get this out before September started!

August saw the launch of the new website with minimum issues and we had a month full of great events including our first HeroClix tournament!

Congratulations go to -
Stuart Clark (Steamroller)
Calum Christie (Magic Game Day)
James Watson (Flames Of War)
Douglas Hamilton (HeroClix Sealed) and Andy Duncan (Warhammer 8th) for winning their respective tournaments.

As with July we've seen an increase in new people in the shop, not just with those completely new to the games/comics that we offer but people dipping into other products that we support.

All of this is great to see and hope to see continue as we're going to be at the Fresher's Fairs for Carnegie and Adam Smith Colleges to promote everything we have to offer!

September is packed with events and also sees us make another change to our opening hours. We will once again be closed on Tuesdays starting with the 7th September and will also remain closed on Sundays.

I have decided to extend the Saturday to 6pm primarily to help us with events but it works better in general. Whilst I'm not keen on being closed 2 days a week it makes business sense at present. We will likely use Tuesdays and Sundays more during holidays and in the run up to Christmas.

Don't forget if there's an event you'd like us to host or product that you think we should stock then let us know and we can look into it!

Cheers,

Dave
